Booking:

When you book a trip or challenge with Travel and Trek there is a certain amount of information we require to fulfil your holiday. This can sometimes include:

The type of personal data that we may ask you to provide includes:

- Full name as per your passport
- Date of birth
- Next of kin
- Postal address
- Telephone number
- Email Address
- Insurance details
- Passport information
- Special requirements such as those relating to any medical condition or disabilities which may affect the chosen challenge arrangements
- Credit/debit card or other payment details (including card number, cardholder name and expiry date)

Why is It Being Collected?

This information is either to provide you with requested services such as email newsletters or brochures, or to complete your holiday booking.

When you book a trip with Travel and Trek this forms a contract. There is a certain amount of information we require to fulfil this contract and ensure your health and safety during a trip.

Some of the information we collect, such as your medical details, is classed as 'special categories of personal data' under GDPR. We only collect this in order to cater to your needs or act in your interest and any data within this category will only be processed in order to fulfil our obligation to ensure your safety and wellbeing. This may include passing details to our overseas ground handlers for which we request your explicit consent. Should you not provide this consent, we may not be able to complete your booking arrangements if we consider that this non-disclosure could be harmful to yourself or other members of the group.

How do we use your Information?

Travel and Trek use your personal information for a number of uses including, but not exclusively, for the following:

- Administrative purposes, which means that Travel and Trek may contact you for reasons related to the service you have requested e.g. extra information required for visas or required pre-trip paperwork.
- We use financial information that you provide us with in order to process card payments or bank transfers in settlement of any monies due or owed, relating to your booking. Your financial information is not retained on a database or network and is only used where you have authorised us to do so in accordance with the booking conditions and in accordance with the GDPR 2018.
- If any of the costs for your trip are being paid through Charitable Fundraising then we are obliged to forward your contact and challenge details to the charity for them to confirm their agreement to the payment option. They may wish to contact you direct to support you with your fundraising.
- In order to complete your booking we may need to disclose some of your information to organisations who may also act as 'joint data controllers' or 'data processors'. We only pass on your information to companies that undertake business functions on our behalf. The majority of these companies are located outside the UK/ European Economic Area (EEA). Controls for data protection may not be as strong outside of the EEA however we will only pass relevant information on to persons/organisations that are responsible for part of your challenge arrangements. If we are unable to pass this information on we may not be able to accept your booking.
- We may disclose your information if required to by law or where such a request is made by a legal authority. We may also need to disclose our customer list including any personal information relating to you to a third party, who acquires, or attempts to acquire, all or substantially all of the asset/stock in our company.
- We may email you with information relevant to your trip which we feel is of beneficial interest to you. This may include for example: available training walks, up-to-date travel advice, updated visa requirements, pre-departure tips and reminders.
- We will only send you information about special offers, brochures, new challenges, events and competitions if you have 'opted in' to receive news from Travel and Trek. If you do not wish to receive this information, you can use the 'unsubscribe' function at the bottom of any communication or let us know direct.

Please note that we do not disclose your personal information to third parties to enable them to send you direct marketing.

Who We Share Your information With?

If booking a holiday with Travel and Trek, we will need to share information with our ground handlers in the destination you are visiting. We request that our ground agents delete this information 30 days after your tour ends. We may also need to share your information with other providers involved in fulfilling the contract e.g. airlines, hotels or government agencies. A data transfer audit is available upon request.

How Long Will We Hold Your Information For?

If you have booked a holiday with Travel and Trek Limited, we will keep your information on record for three years after you return home, in case this information needs to be accessed in matters relating to your booking. This information will be deleted after three years.

For email newsletter sign ups, you can withdraw your consent at any time by using the 'unsubscribe' function at the bottom of any communication or by letting us know directly.

Promotional Material

In addition to information provided via our website Travel and Trek Limited reserves the right to use any photographs, images or video taken on a trip or trip-related occasion by its employees, or forwarded by any person on the trip or connected to the trip for use in any other relevant promotional material. This could include on our website, social media pages or our charity partners promoting our challenges. If you prefer not to be included in this, please let us know.
